A DISGUSTED AUDIENCE

THE STARS COULD NOT PLAY BALL IN THE RUD.

Gave Up the Game to the Regiments in the Fourth Innings Amid the Jeers of the Crowd.

Having agreed early on Saturday afternoon to play off their game with the Regiments and posted a notice to that effect, the Stars should have stuck to their agreement instead of making an exhibition of themselves which disgusted the patrons of the game.
While the grounds were slippery they were in splendid condition compared to some of the Eastern grounds in wet weather, and even if they were not neither side could claim any advantage on that account.

The Regiments were promptly on hand and indulged in a little preliminary practise. The Stars were given the grounds at 3:15 but they didn't want to practise.
The expression on Captain Harry Wilder's face caused one of the reporters to exclaim, "Look out for a grand kick." The kick commenced by objections to the weather, the grounds and everything in sight, but the Regiments held to their agreement. Instead of dividing the gate receipts according to the usual percentage it was agreed that the winning team should take all the clubs were entitled to.

It was a quarter to 4 when Umpire Whitney finally called the game and when the Regiments piled up five runs in the first innings, the Stars battery commenced playing far time and hoping for rain. The rain came at intervals but not enough to stop the game. In the fourth innings after a wait of seven minutes on account of rain, the game was again called but the Stars refused to go to the bat. Umpire Whitney called Captain Wilder up and gave him one minute to put a man in the box. Wilder lost his temper and said he would give up the game first. The umpire accordingly gave the game to the Regiments and the audience went home thinking that the Stars had better get a new captain or leave the Regiments and St. Louis teams to finish the season.

The details of the game, such as it was, are given below:

The Regiments were first at the bat. Bowers took his base on balls and was caught napping two seconds after. Moore went to first on four balls. Luahiwa made a base hit. Moore came in on Kiley's two-bagger and Luahiwa scored on a passed ball. Gorman made first and stole second. Kiley scored on Kaanohi's hit for second. Davis flew out to Koki.
Duncan went to third on an overthrow to first by Lishman and Gorman and Kaanohi scored.
Hennessey was put out at first.

Wilder, Hart and Cunha were put out at first in short order.
In the second Bowers struck out, Moore made his base. Moore was put out at second but Luahi-wa saved his first. Kiley was caught out by Woods.

Mahuka made his first by Kaanohi's muff but was put out trying to steal second. Lishman got a base hit and Pryce took a base on balls.
Pryce was caught napping at first and Lishman was put out at third.

In the third Gorman took first on a hit to left field and second on a passed ball. Kaanohi made first and stole second. Davis flew out to Mahuka. Duncan's base hit brought in a run, but he was put out trying to steal second.
Hennessey's base hit brought Kaanohi in. Hennessey was put out at second.

Ross took his base on balls.
Koki was caught out by second and Ross was touched before he got back to first. Woods was struck by pitcher and took his base and Wilder was put out at first.

In the fourth Bowers was struck out. Moore took first on balls. Luahiwa was struck by pitcher and went to first. Moore scored on Kiley's single. Kiley was put out at second on Gorman's sacrifice. Kaanohi's two bagger brought Gorman and Luahiwa in.

Hart took his base on balls, Cunha did the same. Hart went to third on a passed ball. Ma-huka was put out at first and Cunha at third while Hart scored.

Uncertainties and a Certainty.

The attention of the public is now fully occupied and diverted in the consideration and discussion of several important current and prospective happenings. An-nexion, as yet unsecured, Reciprocitiy threatened; the coming of the Naniwa, and her mission after arrival; the outcome of the war between Greece and Turkey and, whether or no, all Europe will eventually become involved; the settlement of the quarantine squabble—are all themes of much conjecture and uncertainty, and while opinions are freely offered, none can accurately foretell the outcome of any of these matters.
Nevertheless, it is becoming more apparent, as each day passes, that Buffalo and Hoffbrau are the favorite brews, and it is gratifying that assurance is given that regular shipments of these wholesome and strengthening beverages can be depended upon, and that they will, as heretofore, be dispensed at the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons, and that the interchangeable check system is an established fact.

More Reasons.

Why people come long distances to buy at the Palma Grocery.
Reason No. 1—Because one customer tells another how much they saved by dealing at this live and let live establishment. Reason No. 2—Because the saving from their grocery bill helps them to pay their house rent. If you don't believe what our customers say, just give us a call and be convinced.

Jubilee Stamps.

M. Bransch, who returned from London last week, has specimens of the Jubilee stamps, issued at the instance of the Prince of Wales, 1s. and 2s. 6d. denominations. They are very pretty.
Canada is issuing a Jubilee postage stamp of all denominations, the face value of the set being over $16. The design comprises clear portraits of the Queen at her accession and the present time on one stamp.

BY POLICE AT CALLAO.

Inquiry here confirms the story coming from Lima to the effect that the State Department has lodged a demand with the United States charge of legation at Lima for the release of the mate of the American bark "Uncle John." He was ashore on December 19 last at Callao, and was arrested because of his constant demand for "Rainier Beer." On tap or in bottles at the Criterion Saloon.

the public that he has on hand a

DUNBAR AT OLD TRICKS

HELPS DIRECTORY COVER SPACE OVER AND OVER.

Roughly Handled and Made to Disgorge—Ought to Be in Jail for Other Swindles.

Dunbar, the directory faker, who worked Honolulu to some extent a few years ago, has, it would appear, cheated the offended law for later exploits in San Francisco, according to the following from the Call:

About as smooth a swindler as ever made this city the field of his nefarious operations is one A. R.
Dunbar, whose transactions some months ago received an airing in connection with soliciting subscriptions for the Press club and for an alleged sound money club.

He is again at his old tricks, this time using a mining directory as a medium through which to flim-flam his victims. Dunbar, who is a good talker and dresser, a few weeks ago approached a number of downtown business men and asked them to renew their advertisements for the 1897 directory that had appeared in the 1896 edition. As an inducement he offered in addition to the inside page to have the advertisement appear on the front cover and embodied that provision in the contract. On the delivery of the books the price of the advertisement was to be paid.

The Brooks - Follis Electric Company, the California Electrical Works, the Dow Steam Pump Works, the Dunham-Carrigan Hayden Company, L. S.
Van Winkle & Co., Crane & Co., and the Washburn & Moen Manufacturing Company are some of those who subscribed for the front cover. The fact that there was only one front cover in nowise disturbed Mr. Dunbar's equanimity, as he proceeded in an ingenious way to manufacture front covers to order.

He accomplished this by pasting on as a front cover the advertisement of the different firms who had contracted for it. The back cover was doctored in the same manner, and unless there had been some slip no firm would have detected the swindle, accepting the books in the firm belief that its advertisement appeared on every front page, instead of its being only on the copies in its office.

But there was a slip. Dunbar's anxiety to get money was the cause of his undoing. Before the paste was fully dry he delivered the Dunham-Carrigan Company its books, and received the $10 called for in payment.
Hardly had he left the store when the fraud was detected by the cashier, who, picking the book up rather roughly, slid the page back that was pasted to the cover disclosing another firm's advertisement underneath.

Sanford Bennett, the manager, was notified, and while discussing the matter the young bookkeeper from Dows Pump Works stepped in and injected some corroborative evidence into the conversation. He had detected the fraud from the fact that the "cut" used in his advertisement was locked up in his desk drawer. Consequently a page from last year's directory must have been used for the deception. When this had been explained some one announceed that he had just seen Dunbar go into Van Winkle & Co.'s store with an armful of directories.

This information caused a speedy adjournment and a hasty if not dignified trip to Van Winkle's. As Mr. Bennett, who is a magnificent athlete, reached the entrance Mr. Dunbar was just leaving the office with a happy and contented look upon his countenance. It was not a time for words. Before he knew just how it happened he was inside the office once more and roughly jostled into a hard seated chair by the indignant Bennett and compelled to disgorge his ill gotten gains. His books and contracts were returned to him and he was notified that the locality after that would be of a decidedly unhealthy character for his constitution.

The other firms were quickly warned, and it is safe to assume that Dunbar realized but little from his scheme.

It is interesting to note the varying scale of prices charged, ranging from $10 for the Dunham Carrigan "ad" to $35 for the Brooks-Follis Company.

Dunbar has been engaged in all manner of swindling operations and has managed in some manner to escape being sent where he richly deserves to be—behind the bars.

He was tried before Judge Low some time since for swindling the German Bank, Bank of California and other firms by claiming to represent the Press Club. He was convicted and sentenced to several months in jail. He appealed for a new trial, managed to get bail and got out pending the appeal, and it was afterward stated that he had run away. Believing that matter to have blown over, he is again at his old tricks. The question is being asked by many.
Has this fellow got a pull? If not, why is he not serving his sentence? Detective Ros Whitaker looked into the case before at the instance of Captain Lees and obtained the evidence which convicted him.

THE WATER CARNIVAL.

Prizes for Best Illuminated Boats and Ships.

The members of the Fireworks Committee for the Fourth of July celebration having added a water carnival to the other amusements provided for Saturday night are working hard to make a success of the venture. The General Committee has allowed them $250 for prizes, which has been divided into prizes ranging from $50 for the best illuminated merchant or coasting vessel to $5 for the second best canoe or skiff.

A procession of all competing boats and launches will be formed off the Myrtle boathouse at 7:30 and proceed around the harbor and past the judges' boat back to the starting point. This water carnival will undoubtedly be very attractive, as the value of the prizes offered should cause considerable competition.

How to Keep Palms and Ferns.

Much of the health of the palm according to the drawing room decorator in the winter depends upon its treatment in the summer. Like humanity, palms thrive better after a summer outing. Set them in the ground in the yard, not in an exposed place where the sun will soon kill them, but in a shady corner, where the soft summer rains may beat upon them and pure ozone fill their cells.

The same is true of the ferns that form the center of most dining tables.
Economy teaches that it is cheaper to buy two centerpieces at once, substituting one for the other at the first sign of drooping or drying leaves.

No plant will retain life if kept constantly under the gas of a chandelier.
The value of having two centerpieces lies in the ability to have one always in the air, where, with lavish treatment in the way of water and a spraying besides of leaves, the life of these graceful, tender plants may be prolonged indefinitely.

JUDICIARY JOTTINGS.

Answer of Police Officers—Submission of Rile Case.

An exception has been filed by A. Rosa, attorney for plaintiff, to the ruling, judgment and finding of the Circuit Court in the case of Charles B. Poor vs. Henry Smith, administrator.

An answer has been filed to the complaint of three partners of Wing Wo Tai Co. against Sam A.
Macy, Robert H. Parker and Gas Cordes. The defendants allege that they acted in good faith, fulfilling their duties as police officers, when they detained the plaintiffs and certain trunks and boxes, for which they have been sued for $1000 damages. Attorney General W. O. Smith for defendants.

In the case of John F. Bowler vs. E. C. Macfarlane and others—the Elele case—the testimony of R. More was taken before Judge Carter today, and the case finally submitted for decision on the master's report. C. Brown and Robertson for plaintiff; Stanley and Creighton for different defendants.

Sharkey will defeat Maher if he drinks the new O. P. S. Whiskey that is just put on the market at the Anchor Saloon. Also, Half-and-Half and Seattle Beer.*
